Reignited and It Feels So Good!

The Flaming Idiots Return Home to ZACH Theatre

The New York Times hails performance as "Good-natured, high-spirited, silly fun!"

WHAT: The Flaming Idiots – hot from their sold out, off-Broadway run in New York City - return to ZACH's stage with their new show filled with outrageous, crackerjack juggling and hilarious hijinx. Austin's acclaimed three man band (accompanied by a three man band) bring together threads from Vaudeville, stand-up, circus, and hysterical comedy to weave an original and stunning theatrical tapestry. Great fun for all ages.

Austinites will once again enjoy this act that the New York Times has called "An experience bubbling with humor...footloose, fanciful and free-spirited!"

WHERE: ZACH Theatre's Kleberg Stage
1421 W. Riverside Dr. (Corner of Riverside Dr. and S. Lamar.)

WHEN: Limited Run! January 28 – March 14, 2010
Wednesday-Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2:30 p.m.
